

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The greatest pleasure in gathering material for this book has been meeting and talking to a large number of people who have been connected with aviation history. They rank alongside the many correspondents, particularly ex-members of the Squadron, who have provided many valuable photographs and anecdotes which now can be added to the Squadron's collection. I thank the following for their help:

Air Historical Branch, MOD

Steve Clarke, Jim Shovlin and Eric Munday,
Sqn Ldr P. H. R. Singleton RAF (Retd), Graham Day, Gp Capt T. C. Flanagan RAF (Retd),

could be acknowledged,
Ian Witter,
Sheila Warrenner for great patience, and particularly to John Evans for continual advice, material and support.

Particular thanks are due to three photographers from Kinloss; Marion Hamilton, Geoff Rodgers and Glenn Harrap.

A variety of assistance was given by members of 201
Squadron:

Chris Jones, Bruce Hargrave, Ian Madgwick, Dave Knowles, Sid Rees, Robbie Noel, Gordon Pell, Trevor Purnell, Roger Rowlands, Steve Rooke, Rory Slater, Ian Sutton and Dave Hattrick — whose collation of squadron and crew lists proved to be a significantly larger task than anticipated!

Additionally, the author wishes to thank Flt Lt John Horrocks for précis work, his father B. B. Nash for immense quantities of green ink during the proof-reading stage, SAC David Morgan the 201 Squadron adjutant's clerk for prodigies of typing, and Douglas Grant and his staff at Moravian Press, Elgin, for considerable enthusiasm and flexibility.

The financial contribution from the following companies enabled the project to go ahead:

CAE
GEC
MARCONI
SHORT BROS
LORAL
ROLLS ROYCE
THORN EMI
COMPUTING DEVICES COMPANY
